24 At 20: Honoring Earnhardt, Corvette, And The Overall Win At Daytona

On Thursday of Labor Day weekend, during the 27th Anniversary Event at the National Corvette Museum, the Museum held a special seminar with members of the 2001 Overall Win at Daytona team. This year, that win celebrates 20 years, and championship-winning driver Andy Pilgrim, former Corvette Racing Program Manager Doug Fehan, and retired Corvette Racing Marketing Manager Gary Claudio joined us to celebrate. You may recall that in 2001 Corvette Racing had a clean sweep at the event. The number 2 Corvette came in first, and the number 3 Corvette came in second.

NCM Welcomes New Event Presenter - Jordan Lee

For the first time at a Museum event, the Museum was pleased to welcome Jordan Lee, the Chief Engineer of Small Block Engines, to present.

Jordan mentions that there are three main objectives that they have to consider with the new LT2 engine. Those things are performance, enhanced track capability, and the new mid-engine architecture. With performance, it's about improving the legendary LT1 engine capability for Horsepower and Torque; for enhanced track capability, it's about meeting aggressive handling targets from the beginning and significant engine engineering, and the new mid-engine positions and design considerations are components for the new architecture.

CORVETTE RACING:

Runner-Up in C8.R Le Mans Debut for Corvette Racing

This past Sunday, the mid-engine Chevrolet Corvette C8.R made its 24 Hours of Le Mans debut! Corvette Racing finished on the class podium with Antonio Garcia, Jordan Taylor, and Nicky Catsburg winning second place in the No. 63 Mobil 1/SiriusXM Corvette C8.R. Although the debut of the mid-engine racing Corvette came a year late, the wait was well worth it! Jim Campbell, Chevrolet U.S. Vice President, Performance and Motorsports, shared that this second-place achievement is a "testament to the hard work and determination of our Corvette production and racing teams." Corvette Racing driver, Jordan Taylor, shared that we should be proud to come home second against some of the cars that have been running at Le Mans for the past few years.

Corvette Racing returns to action in the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship on Sept. 10-12 at WeatherTech Raceway Laguna Seca in Monterey, California.

Corvette Corral at VIR

Enjoy the fall colors October 8th through 10th at Virginia International Raceway in Alton, VA as the fan-favorite IMSA WeatherTech Sports Car Championship makes its only mid-Atlantic stop in the premier North American sports car racing series. In addition to the headlining Michelin GT Challenge race, the action-packed weekend will feature several support series including the IMSA Prototype Challenge featuring Le Mans Prototype 3 cars, the Michelin Pilot Challenge featuring both Grand Sport and Touring Car Classes, Lamborghini Super Trofeo Series, and the Porsche GT3 Cup Challenge.

Fans are invited to register for a Corvette Corral hosted by the National Corvette Museum and dedicated NCM volunteers. There will be a National Corvette Museum merchandise tent located adjacent to the Corral. The track is open Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Michelin GT Challenge race, featuring our Corvette Racing Team, is Saturday, October 9th, from 12:10 pm - 2:50 pm. Please be aware that times and dates are subject to change.
