New Collections Facility Takes Shape

The building site for the new 66,000-square-foot Collections facility has been leveled. Initial roadways and entry points are complete. The foundation is in place, and the first exterior walls and framework are being constructed.

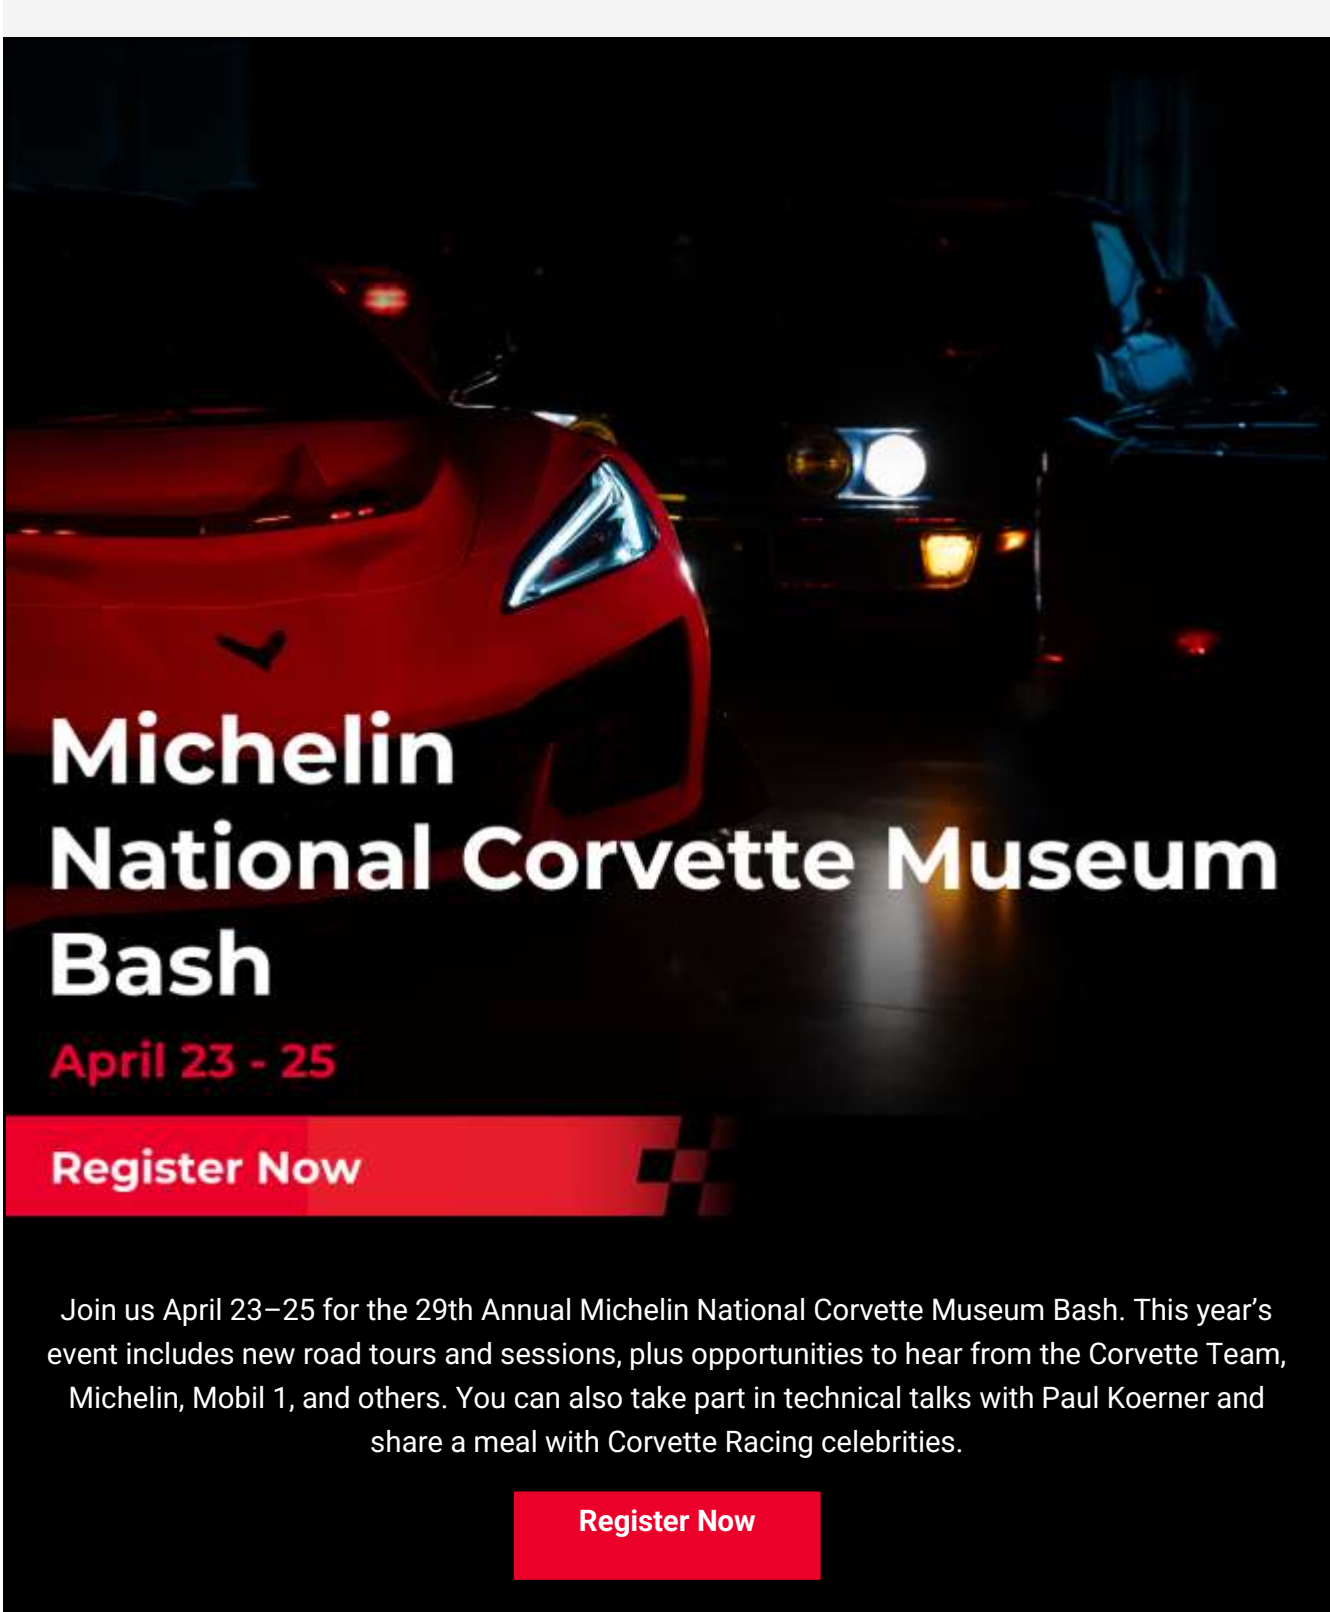

Every square foot is being built with purpose to support long-term preservation, increase public access, and honor the stories behind the cars that shaped Corvette culture.

Expanded Road Tour Experiences

This year, road tours are back and brand new. From the handcrafted wine at Summer Crest Winery and the powerful nostalgia at the HotRod MotorTel, to the heritage-filled, award-winning bourbon at Heaven Hill Distillery, each tour offers a unique experience. Road tours require additional registration and are not included in the event registration cost.

Corvette Racing Dinner

Please join us for the Corvette Racing by Pratt Miller Motorsports dinner, hosted by former National Corvette Museum board member Wes Wong. Onstage will be Pratt Miller Motorsports’ Brandon Widmer, Vice-President, Ben Bode, Team Manager, and Doug Fehan, Corvette Racing Ambassador. The dinner requires additional registration and is not included in the event registration cost.

Michelin & Mobil 1

Get the latest information on industry trends in tire technology during a presentation from Michelin. Join our renowned Mobil 1 Tech Talk, where you can have your Corvette-related questions answered.

Latest from the Corvette Team
