NOVEMBER NCM NEWSLETTER

November Is Military Appreciation Month

To thank those who serve and have served our country, the National Corvette Museum is offering free general admission throughout November to all active-duty U.S. military personnel and Veterans from every branch of service. Present proof of military service at the admissions desk upon arrival and enjoy a day celebrating the legacy of America's Sports Car.

Go Behind the Scenes of Corvette History

A new way to experience Corvette history is coming to the National Corvette Museum! Beginning January 13, 2027, guests can explore the Museum’s new 66,000-square-foot Collections Facility through guided public tours. Get a closer look at Corvettes from every generation, including significant vehicles rarely seen on public display, while discovering the work that goes into preserving and protecting these remarkable vehicles and artifacts for future generations.

Plan your visit! Tours are limited, and advance ticket purchase is required. Tickets will be available online beginning December 1, 2026, and each tour ticket includes self-guided admission to the National Corvette Museum on the same day.

Dear Corvette Store Customer,

We're updating the way you sign in to your Corvette Store account. Our goal is to make signing in easier and more secure. Soon, you'll no longer need to remember a password to access your account. Instead, when you sign in, we'll send a one-time code to your email address. Enter that code, and you'll be ready to shop!

What Do I Need to Do?

Continue using the same email address you use today when shopping with us. When the new sign-in process begins, you'll receive a code by email instead of entering a password.

Why Are We Making This Change?

Access your complete order history, check real-time delivery statuses, reorder items with one click, and edit active subscriptions–all without contacting support. This update will make it easier to access your account while adding an extra layer of security. You'll also continue to enjoy convenient features such as:

Viewing your order history
Checking shipment tracking information
Managing your account details
Faster checkout on future purchases

We’re Here to Help

We'll send additional reminders before this change takes effect. If you have questions, our team will be happy to assist you. Thank you for choosing the Corvette Store.
